

THINKS VIRGINIA SHOULD WIN AGAIN

Gloth Tells of Recent V. M. I. Carolina.
Game Against North

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Charlotteville, Va., October 5.—With such a speed, backfield team as Honaker and Todd, and with the prospects bright for developing a formidable line, Virginia looks good to me. This spoke "Billy" Gloth, now head coach at the Virginia Military Institute, when asked to-day to give his opinion of the Virginia eleven, after looking them over for two days. The V. M. I. cadets, Gloth's understudies, were defeated at Chapel Hill last Saturday by North Carolina, the score being 6 to 0. Carolina has three all-South Atlantic men back, and also has an unusually heavy line, but Gloth thinks Virginia should win again this year. Brides, the ex-Yale football man, who is coaching Carolina again, has taught his line to play very high, working on the theory that the forwards to keep their eyes glued on the course of the ball than for them to root out their opponents by the low crouch method. This theory is said to have received somewhat of a jar in Saturday's game, when the cadets, playing low, dived under the heavy Carolina boys, and succeeded in dumping them. The Virginia team is fast developing, though three players—Holladay, Driver and Jones—will be out of the game for a week at least, owing to slight injuries received. With such a rest, however, they ought to be in splendid condition for the big game later. A determined effort is being made to develop two or three sets of backs, unfortunately, however, nearly all of the backfield material is light. It seems certain now that it will be impossible to fill the place left vacant by Yancy, who could always be counted upon for three or five yards when in the shadow of the goal post, and a first down was needed. Percy Ashby, the track man, who pulled off a thirty-yard run around the end in Saturday's game with Randolph-Macon, continues to perform very creditably. "Red" Brown continues to do the brunt of the kicking.

YALE DEFEATS TUFTS.

Only Scoring Is Done in First Half of Game.
Newhaven, October 5.—Yale won from Tufts, 17 to 0, this afternoon, with the scoring only in the first half. The other half Yale put in substitutes, who were fooled by a novelty in formation worked by Tufts for repeated gains, but which formation was so crudely played that the visitors themselves by fumbling lost everything they gained by it. A fumble gave Yale a touchdown, and others came by line plays. One goal was missed. Tufts once held Yale for down on its four-yard line.

OPENING GAME OF SEASON.

Fredericksburg College Defeated by Rockhill, of Maryland.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Fredericksburg, Va., October 5.—Fredericksburg College opened its football season here to-day with Rockhill College, of Maryland. Although out-weighted by several pounds to the man, the local team held the Marylanders for the first two quarters, but after that Rockhill ran up a score of 21 to 6. Fredericksburg scored her first and only touchdown in about one min-

COBB LEADS LAJOIE IN RACE FOR AUTO
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Cleveland, O., October 5.—Averages compiled by The News show that Tyrus Cobb, of the Detroit team, is leading Napoleon Lajoie, of the Cleveland team, in the race for the batting championship and the automobile offered as a prize to the leading batter. The figures as published to-day give Cobb 492 times at bat and 187 hits for an average of .380, and Lajoie 500 times at bat, and 212 hits, for an average of .372. Unofficial averages heretofore gave Lajoie a mark of .375 and Cobb a mark of .374.

LEE COUNTY FAIR OPENS.

Attendance Is Large and Splendid
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Jonesville, Va., October 5.—The Lee County Fair opened to-day its fourth annual exhibition. The attendance was very good for the first day, and splendid exhibits of farm products were made. Some of the best cattle to be found in the State, and a number of good horses were shown. The races began at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon, and considerable interest in the running race between a Kentucky thoroughbred, owned by the Planers, of this county, and a Virginia mare, owned by Mr. Gannon, of Bristol. The Planers' won by a small margin. The fair lasts until Saturday, and big crowds are expected for the remaining days.

VICTORY FOR PRINCETON.

Villa Nova Is Easily Defeated by the Score of 36 to 0.
Princeton, N. J., October 5.—Princeton easily defeated Villa Nova at football on University Field this afternoon by the score of 36 to 0. The game was open, and the forward pass was frequently used by Princeton with success.

The home eleven scored five touchdowns in field goals and three goals from touchdowns. Bard's field goal from the forty-yard line was the feature of the game. Pendleton made several brilliant runs through broken fields.

Pennsylvania Wins.

Philadelphia, Pa., October 5.—Franklin and Marshall gave the University of Pennsylvania hard battle here to-day, the home eleven winning by the score of 17 to 0. The visitors were full of life, and once held Pennsylvania for downs inside the five-yard line. The Quakers made good use of the forward pass, and it scored one of the touchdowns. Mercer was the star of the Pennsylvania team until compelled to leave the game because of injuries.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Blackburg, Va., October 5.—A touchdown on a fumble punt early in the first quarter by the visitors and a goal and three touchdowns and a goal for the Techs, with a final score of 16 to 6 in favor of the latter, tells the story of a hotly contested game here this afternoon, in which V. P. I. wiped out their defeat of three years ago by Davidson College, of North Carolina. The Techs fought an uphill game, and showed the results of their strenuous coaching of the past week. With the ball on Davidson's five-yard line the home team lost a chance to score in the first quarter. Hughes, quarter-back, was the star for the Techs, his run being the feature of the game. Legg at tackle showed up strong, and Bernier well in bringing back punts. V. P. I. worked the forward pass successfully several times. Both teams were penalized frequently for infraction of the rules, but the Techs showed more familiarity with these. They fought hard for every inch of ground gained, the teams being more evenly matched than the score indicates.

STATE PACING RECORD

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Winston-Salem, N. C., October 5.—May Shady Belle, a West View farm mare, of Winston-Salem, broke the State pacing record to-day in the Piedmont Fair track, when driven by H. M. Reeves. She covered the course in 2:11 flat. This wonderful animal lowered the record last year on the local track, bringing it to 2:11 3/4, but this year she did still better. Marie Bradley was second; Alto Clark third; St. Louis, fourth; driven by H. H. Tyson, won the 2:25 pace, with 2:12 1/2 as best time; George W. Second; Dan P. third, and Caris S. fourth.

SOCIETY TO HELP CONSUMPTIVES

Mrs. Freda Safra Asks Aid for Jewish White Plague Patients.

Mrs. Freda Safra, field secretary of the Jewish Consumptives' Relief Society, of Denver, Col., is in Richmond for the purpose of securing funds to aid the organization in pursuing its warfare against the white plague. It is well-known that consumption is no respecter of creed, and followers of the Jewish religion have been by no means exempt from this dire disease. It is the object of the Relief Society to keep from becoming pauper charges those coreligionists who journey to the Western city in the hope of regaining their lost health. Unfortunately for the greater number of arrivals at those who are unable to provide for themselves, this condition is due either directly to poverty or to what is probably more pathetic, to the ravages of the disease itself, making it impossible for the patient to accept employment whereby to obtain the necessities of life while undergoing treatment. But whether from the former or the latter cause it is the hope of the society to be in such a position financially to render aid to those who are required by the new arrival. It is pointed out by the officers of the society that a donation to the cause is, as a matter of fact, a saving in the long run. For, if the patient is restored to health, he will be able to become self-supporting and not continue a public charge. From an economic standpoint, if the argument advanced holds, and there seems little reason to suppose that it will not, it would appear wise for those approached to help. At least

J. W. Cowan, a salesman of South Richmond, was shot and killed at the Police Court yesterday morning for engaging in a street fight with E. Shields, a Hull Street merchant of 325 East Broad Street, Tuesday morning. Shields was also tried for assault, but this case was dismissed. Cowan, named as the assailant, was taken to the hospital to be treated for his wounds. Shields followed him out of the store and struck and hit him, and after tumbling him on the ground over an obstruction he fired a shot at him. Cowan, an eye-witness, said Cowan, after rising, went back into the store and demanded an explanation. Words passed, and it was alleged Cowan struck Shields, and the row was precipitated. Shields, an old offender, was given sixty days by Justice Maurice. Guy Williams, drunk and disorderly, was fined $2.50 and costs. Guy Burrows and Linwood Tatum, charged with fighting, had their case continued until this morning to obtain testimony of witnesses.

this is the way Mrs. Freda Safra argues the question. There is another and similar society in Denver for the care of Jewish consumptives, though life should not be confused. One is national in its scope—the Jewish Consumptives' Relief Society—while the other is purely local. Mrs. Safra will call upon all Jewish residents of Richmond for help in the good cause, and she hopes for much success.
